

MARIA RITA SIMONE

Maria Rita Simone is an actress and playwright with a PhD in Performing Arts from the Department of Philology and Literature of the University of Verona. She has been a member of Teatro dell'Albero since 2013. Her theatre training includes numerous theatre workshops, master classes and projects in Italy and abroad. She has performed at the following festivals: Crucifixus Festival di Primavera, Acque e Terre Festival, Santarcangelo International Festival of the Arts, Inequilibrio di castiglioncello (Armunia), Festival Castel dei Mondi di Andria, and Festuge (Odin Teatret). She was a playwright and actress with Teatro dell'Albero, co-creating Ardendo si consuma; In Memory; The Fight between Tancredi and Clorinda. The Facts and Background of a Heart-Piercing Love; Mary, A Woman of Today; Silk and Cotton. She is a member of the ArchiDrama Cultural Association dedicated to creating, completing and promoting arts and culture projects in Sicily.