

ROSALBA GENOVESE

Rosalba Genovese, actress of the Teatro dell'Albero, began to study Orissi (an Indian classical dance), in 1980 under the guidance of Aloka Panikar. During the nineties (1996-1999), she worked in the Teatro Trebbo, a group specialized in educational shows for children (H2O; Assalto al Castello, L'intestino, 2 + 2, Il porcospino goloso). In 1999, together with Mario Barzaghi, she founded the Teatro dell'Albero. From 2000 to 2004 she studied in Denmark (Holstebro) at the Odin Teatret; result of this permanence was the show Good Night Cathy! (directed by Else Marie Laukvik of the Odin Teatret). Back in Italy she conducted several theatre workshops. She attended workshops conducted by Massimo Schuster, Richard Cieslak, Zygmunt Molik, Yves Lebreton, Roberta Carreri, Tage Larsen, Torgeir Wethal.
