

GOOD NIGHT CATHY!

Performer: Rosalba Genovese

Lighting designer: Marcello d'Agostino

Director: Else Marie Laukvik (Odin Teatret)

in collaboration with Nordisk Teaterlaboratorium

The performance is loosely based on a short story of Leonardo Sciascia included in his book Il mare color del vino. In a dreamlike journey, a Sicilian emigrant, Cathy, imagines to meet the great stars of the Cinema and the Theatre: Marlon Brando, Charlot, Buster Keaton, Martha Graham. She sings, dances, mimes and at the same time tells the story of a journey that takes place in the fifties, beginning one night from a desert beach in Sicily. A group of emigrants sold everything to buy the ticket for a crossing on the ship that will take them to America. Mr. Melfa has promised that they will land there in twelve days. Will Cathy and the other Sicilians make their dream true?
