

SILK AND COTTON

Performers: Rosalba Genovese and Maria Rita Simone
Director: Mario Barzaghi

Silk and Cotton. Two bodies. Only one soul. Where do they come from? Where do they go? Nobody knows. They have a mission: to walk around the world, leaving a trace of their steps on every centimeter of the earth. Their arrival to each new town is a feast. The citizens welcome them with fresh and fragrant flowers. At sun set, it is time to set off. They bid farewell to the town and take the next thousands of steps on their journey around the world.

Running time: 45 minutes
